

Schedule 2.1 Notice of employee representational rights

(regulation 2.05)

Fair Work Act 2009, subsection 174 (6)

Western Health gives notice that it is bargaining in relation to an enterprise agreement, the Victorian Public Health Sector (Medical Scientists, Pharmacists and Psychologists) Enterprise Agreement 2016 -2020 which is proposed to cover employees that are employed as Medical Scientists, Pharmacists, Psychologists, Audiologists, Clinical Perfusionists, Dietitians, Genetic Counsellors and Medical Physicists.

What is an enterprise agreement?

An enterprise agreement is an agreement between an employer and its employees that will be covered by the agreement that sets the wages and conditions of those employees for a period of up to 4 years. To come into operation, the agreement must be supported by a majority of the employees who cast a vote to approve the agreement and it must be approved by an independent authority, Fair Work Commission.

If you are an employee who would be covered by the proposed agreement:

You have the right to appoint a bargaining representative to represent you in bargaining for the agreement or in a matter before Fair Work Commission about bargaining for the agreement.

You can do this by notifying the person in writing that you appoint that person as your bargaining representative. You can also appoint yourself as a bargaining representative. In either case you must give a copy of the appointment to your employer. This information can be provided to Gillian Shedden, Director Employee Relations & Organisational Wellbeing, Level 5 Footscray Hospital, Gordon Street Footscray 3011

If you are a member of a union that is entitled to represent your industrial interests in relation to the work to be performed under the agreement, your union will be your bargaining representative for the agreement unless you appoint another person as your representative or you revoke the union's status as your representative.

Questions?

If you have any questions about this notice or about enterprise bargaining, please speak to either your employer, bargaining representative, go to www.fairwork.gov.au, or contact the Fair Work Commission Infoline on 1300 799 675.
